ANNOUNCEMENT FOR STUDENTS

2011 Congressional Art Competition

An Artistic Discovery

Sponsored by Congressman Mike Turner, 3rd Congressional District

Hosted by The Dayton Art Institute

This packet is for your use and information in entering your selected piece of artwork for this competition. Please read carefully. In order for your art to be accepted, it must comply with the enclosed guidelines and specifications.

All qualified entries will be on view from Saturday, April 17 through Sunday, May 1 at The Dayton Art Institute. The grand-prize winner and runners-up will be announced and each participant honored with a Certificate of Special Congressional Recognition from Congressman Mike Turner. This special award ceremony will take place on Sunday, May 1 at 1:00 p.m. at The Dayton Art Institute. You and your family are invited to this event.

The winner of the Congressional Art Competition will have the choice of either a $1,500 per year scholarship from the Savannah College of Art and Design (SCAD) or one of the following three scholarships:

The University of Dayton – $2,000 annual scholarship for general studies
Sinclair Community College – $1,000 scholarship for general studies

The winner of the Congressional Art Competition will have the choice of either a $1,500 per year scholarship from the Savannah College of Art and Design or one of the following scholarships:

- The University of Dayton – $2,000 annual scholarship for general studies
- Sinclair Community College – $1,000 scholarship for general studies

Depending on the first place winner's choice, there will be either one or two remaining scholarships, as only the competition winner is eligible for the SCAD scholarship. The second and third place winners will choose from the remaining scholarships. Competition winners' decisions must be declared to Scott Rogers, in Congressman Mike Turner's Office, within one month of the conclusion of the contest.

If there are scholarships unclaimed, they will be offered through a lottery selection to those students who received an honorable mention.
